Thoughts to remember

- Alcoholism is a disease that sometimes affects the behavior of alcoholics.
- Try at least six meetings before deciding whether AI-Anon or Alateen is for you. Don't expect too much too soon.
- Keep an open mind. Take what you like from the meetings and leave the rest.
- Everything said at meetings is confidential.
- We will protect your anonymity and ask that you protect ours.
- During a meeting, please feel free to share if you're comfortable or "pass" and just listen.
- To work our program, we've found these ideas to be helpful:
 - Read as much as possible about alcoholism
 - Call people on the AI-Anon/Alateen phone list
 - Develop a trusting relationship with a sponsor
- AI-Anon is a spiritual program, not religious.
- There are no dues or fees for membership; we are fully self-supporting through voluntary contributions
- At the end of our meetings, we often share hugs. Please feel free to accept them or not.

WELCOME

The Al-Anon/Alateen Family Groups are a fellowship of friends and relatives of alcoholics who share their experience, strength, and hope in order to solve their common problems.

We believe that alcoholism is a family illness and that changed attitudes can aid recovery. The primary purpose of Al-Anon and Alateen Family Groups is to help friends and family members of alcoholics whether the alcoholic is still drinking or not.

Here you'll meet others who have gone through experiences similar to yours. You can share your story in comfort, knowing that your anonymity is protected. You'll find Al-Anon/Alateen literature and materials as well as other tools to help you get back the sanity and serenity you deserve.

As a newcomer, you may feel that you're here for the alcoholic . . . that you may learn how to stop his or her drinking. The truth is that you're here because of the alcoholic and not for the alcoholic. You'll learn that you did not cause the alcoholic to drink, that you cannot control his or her drinking, and that you can't cure the alcoholic. You're here for yourself. This is your program, your recovery from the effects of the disease of alcoholism.

Keep Coming Back . . .

Is Al-Anon/Alateen for Me?

Millions of people are affected by the excessive drinking of someone close, perhaps a family member, coworker, friend, or neighbor. Take a look at these questions to see if Al-Anon or Alateen may help you.

- Do you worry about how much someone else drinks?
- Do you tell lies to cover up for someone else's drinking?
- Do you feel that there's no one who understands your problems?
- Do you feel that drinking is more important to your loved one than you are?
- Do you make threats such as, "If you don't stop drinking, I'll leave you"?
- Do you secretly try to smell the Drinker's breath?
- Have you considered calling the police for help in fear of abuse?
- Do you search for hidden alcohol?
- Are you losing sleep or time from work or school because of problems related to someone else's drinking?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, please consider attending an Al-Anon or Alateen meeting. You'll find people who have been through experiences similar to yours who can help you regain the sanity and serenity that you deserve.

It works, if you work it.
